

LOT #3000 DOUBLE MAGNUM OF 2012 LES PAVOTS PETER MICHAEL WINERY

- 3L 2012 Les Pavots Peter Michael Winery
- Signed by winemaker Nicolas Morlet
- 98 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, 95 Wine Spectator

Les Pavots is Peter Michael's flagship blend of red Bordeaux varietals from Knights Valley Estate. Les Pavots captures an elegant refined expression of the terroir embracing the full spectrum of Cabernet family varietal expression with its trademark touch of herbes de provence. The name translates to "The Poppies" and is named after the California poppies that grow wild on their estate and are the inspiration for the winery's logo. An elegant red with Bordeaux-like nuances and subtlety. Extremely full-bodied, the wine offers the same rich, ripe fruit impressions on the palate. The mouth feel is dense and round, with elegant tannins, which lead to a long finish. Complex, the 2012 Les Pavots will age gracefully for two decades and provides a classic presentation of the estate's terroir.

Blend: 64% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Cabernet Franc, 11% Merlot, 5% Petit Verdot. Aged 18 months in 100% French oak barrels from artisan coopers

VALUE: $1,140

LOT #3022 LIONS, TIGERS, AND A MAILING LIST SPOT, OH MY!

An immediate spot on the Cayuse mailing list (current wait time is 8 years) and two special etched 3L bottles.

- 3-liter Etched Bottle of 2014 Camaspelo
"The Camaspelo is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot (there's a splash of Tempranillo). It offers lots of red and chocolate covered black currants, black cherry, black olive, tobacco and leafy herbs. It shows more fruit with time in the glass, has a full-bodied, ultra-pure, layered style and plenty of fine tannin. Forget the bottle for four to five years and drink over the following two decades." - Jeb Dunnuck, The Wine Advocate, 96+ Points
- 3-liter Etched Bottle of 2014 En Cerise Vineyard Syrah
"Just slightly more ruby colored than the Cailloux Vineyard, the 2014 Syrah en Cerise offers more elegance and finesse as well as lots of black cherry, plums, Asian spice and dried lavender aromatics. Full-bodied, elegant and very fine, it's pretty, perfumed and seamless beauty." - Jeb Dunnuck, The Wine Advocate, 95 Points
- An immediate spot on the Cayuse mailing list

LOT #3038 LEONETTI CELLAR AND FIGGINS - A RARE OFFERING

- An etched and painted 3L of Leonetti Cellar 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon
- A limited edition, etched 3L bottle of FIGGINS 2014 Estate Red Wine
- A spot on the Leonetti Mailing List, bypassing a 4-year waiting period

Throughout the history of Washington wine, the Figgins family has been known for producing wines that have proven themselves on the world's stage. They are known for starting Leonetti Cellar in 1977, one of the most venerated wineries in the Walla Walla Valley. Their wines consistently sell out upon release, and a name on their "List" is highly coveted.

Leonetti Cellar continues to produce incredible wines of world-class quality with the second generation at the helm. Chris Figgins and his sister Amy offer one etched and hand-painted 3-liter magnum of Leonetti Cellars 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon, signed by the winemaker, as well as one spot on the closed Leonetti Cellars mailing list. 85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Petit Verdot, 3% Cabernet Franc. 94 Robert Parker; 92 Wine Enthusiast.

Secondly, an offering of something new with old-world traditions, one etched and hand-painted 3L of FIGGINS 2012 Estate Red Wine, also signed by winemaker Chris Figgins. Nestled in the Blue Mountain foothills overlooking the Walla Walla Valley lies the distinctive 32-acre Figgins Estate Vineyard. Inspired by the success of the Figgins Family's Leonetti Cellar varietal wines, Chris Figgins planted the site in 2004 with the singular goal of cultivating a single vineyard, Bordeaux-style wine of world class quality to complement those he crafts at Leonetti. Hoping to blur the lines between vineyard, winery and brand, the project is focused on establishing a masterpiece of varietal selection, trellising, and intensive viticulture to accomplish this goal. 93 Wine Enthusiast; 94 Wine Advocate.

LOTS #3060, 3061, 3062, 3063, 3064, 3065 DEVONA MAGNUM COLLECTIONS

- 1 bottle 1.5L 2014 Pinot Noir, Freedom Hill Vineyard
- 1 bottle 1.5L 2014 Pinot Noir, Mount Richmond Vineyard

With these wines, Winemaker John Abbott explores his longtime love of Oregon Pinot Noir. Each wine is 100% Pinot Noir from two outstanding Oregon vineyards. His new winery, Devona celebrates his deep roots in Oregon with the addition of Pinot Noir to his repertoire and his long history making wine in Washington State with upcoming releases of Merlot and Cabernet. He sources his fruit from some of the best Oregon and Washington State vineyards, some of which he has worked with for many years and others are new explorations. These large format bottles age beautifully and make a celebration even more special.

2014 Pinot Noir, Mount Richmond Vineyard: This was the first vintage of Devona Pinot Noir from the stunning Mount Richmond Vineyard. Fruit from this vineyard is rarely available outside of Elk Cove's estate offerings. 100% Pommard clone, this is a deep, dark, generous Pinot.

2014 Pinot Noir, Freedom Hill Vineyard: This beautiful wine from the acclaimed Freedom Hill Vineyard in Dallas, Oregon is from the textbook 2014 vintage. This wine offers its classic deep blue and red characters from the Pommard clone combined with the pretty cherry and brightness that comes from the Wädenswil clone.

LOT #3088 THE GRIFFIN

- Magnum of 2015 Griffin Red from Robert Foley Vineyards

The Griffin: on the Foley family crest in Irish heraldry combines the strengths of the lion, king of beasts, with the eagle, king of the skies. A winemaker's dream is to be artistically free to combine characters into wine that is purely hedonic and non-compliant with varietal regulations, so The Griffin's blend changes with every vintage.

Bottled in spring of 2017, this vibrantly youthful red blend is an inky dark red leggy wine! More than half of this blend are classic claret varieties (Cabernet, Malbec, Merlot, Petit Verdot), which marry with Rhone-rooted varieties (Syrah, Petite Sirah, Charbono). Delicious in its youth, this red blend will age elegantly for many years.
